

Boys & Girls Clubs
of Greater Halifax

Position: Sexual Violence Prevention Youth Outreach Worker

Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Halifax – Dartmouth North site

Opportunity and Description:

The Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Halifax seeks a youth outreach worker who will work in the community of Dartmouth North and support the work and mission of the Sexual Violence Prevention Youth Outreach Program. This community-based program is in partnership with – and funded by – the Nova Scotia Department of Community Services. It's designed to improve the immediate and long-term social, economic, educational, and health outcomes for vulnerable youth between the ages of 12 and 19 who are at risk of sexual violence/exploitation. The Youth Outreach Worker will engage youth through mentorship and by assisting them to access services and supports, and work out of our Dartmouth North location on Farrell Street.

About the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Halifax:

At the Boys and Girls Club, every kid is a kid of privilege. Our charity offers a diverse and dynamic range of programs to children and youth from a broad spectrum of backgrounds and neighbourhoods. We host programs at six club sites: Dartmouth North, East Dartmouth, Spryfield, Sackville, Cole Harbour, and Humber Park Elementary. In 2017-18, we served nearly 4,000 children and youth.
